TOM LAWSON WANTS TO BREAK PATTEN CORNER
Boston "Savior of the Common People"
Advises Holding Mass Meetings.
Patten Replies That Lawson Doesn't Know What He Is Talking About, But Is Sufficiently Alarmed to Employ Constant Bodyguard—"Buy, Buy, Buy!" Order to Stop Reaction.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
CHICAGO, April 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With his usual penchant for getting into the limelight, Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, has asked the so-called "Patten wheat corner" as a medium in which he hopes to blossom out into a real savior of the "common people." With his customary frankness he has sent telegrams broadcast throughout the country, to public men and newspapers, offering his services to lead the fight against the "ravenous gamblers who are bent on securing their winnings regardless of the result to humanity," and down at the bottom he adds that he will pay all expenses.
PATTEN'S REPLY.
While Mr. Patten was not the recipient of one of these telegrams, he knew about their being sent out almost as soon as any one else, and before he went home, accompanied by his bodyguard, he made a special point of seeing one, and to it made the following reply:
"Regarding the report that Thomas W. Lawson proposed to call meetings of public men in various cities of the country to issue protests against the prevailing high prices of wheat, it is very evident that Mr. Lawson's information regarding the circumstances surrounding the present prices is even less accurate than his frequently advertised information regarding other matters, and is deserving of no more credence."
PATTEN AGAINST SPECULATION.
Representative Scott of Kansas, chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture, this afternoon introduced a bill in Congress to prohibit dealing in futures in wheat, corn and other agricultural products. It was only by hard work on the part of Board of Trade officials that a similar bill was kept in the committee in the last Congress, and then the matter was dropped to arouse the people. The Board of Trade officials look upon the present as an unpropitious time for them to have such a bill introduced, and while they are chary about saying anything for publication there is a very strong feeling that unless the Patten forces are called off and the market quieted down this bill will get behind it so much popular pressure that Congress may be forced to pass it.
PATTEN FEARS VIOLENCE.
There is very plain evidence that "Jim" Patten is not being made any too comfortable by all of the agitation which this wheat deal has started. Whether he has received threatening letters or not, he does not state, but that he has set a careful guard about himself was revealed today when his personal attendant, a large colored man, followed his every footstep, or stood within easy reaching distance whenever Mr. Patten came to a standstill. He followed him to his automobile, being preceded by the chauffeur. Even in the car Mr. Patten did not permit himself to be alone, having two men with him.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Sherman, wife of the Vice-President, has raised the biggest rumpus in the Daughters of the American Revolution since Mrs. William Cummings Story of New York was named as a candidate for the office of president-general in opposition to Mrs. Matthew T. Committee of Union and Progress Threatens Capital With Army.

Serious Disorders Mark Third Day of Revolution at Constantinople.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]
BERLIN, April 15.—A special dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Salonika says that after a mass meeting today to protest against the changes in the Turkish cabinet, the Young Turk committee decided to march on Constantinople with the Third Army Corps, of which twenty battalions have been mobilized.
The marines gathered in force and seized and conveyed to the palace Arif Bey, commander of the battleship Asar-i-Tank, a member of the Committee of Union and Progress, who ordered the raising of his ship's flag on the Yildiz Kiosk, when the raising was at its height. His intention was to support the committee.
...
Arrived at the Yildiz Kiosk, the marines lashed Arif Bey, notwithstanding efforts of the palace guard to save him.
Edhem Pasha, the new Minister of War, and Nazim Pasha today made the round of the barracks, and exhorted the soldiers to resist their officers. They were heartily cheered.
DISQUIETING NEWS.
Porte circles are disquieted by news from Salonika and Monastir, where the influence of the Committee of Union and Progress is strong. Officers of the Porte have received telegrams from these sections demanding the reestablishment of the status quo, falling which the committee leaders threaten to march on Constantinople with the entire Third Army Corps, whose officers are now in communication with the Second Army Corps, with a view to cooperation.
The impression prevails here that the Third Army Corps is ignorant of the real objects of Turkey's rising, and may desert when it realizes that the Parliament and the constitution have been maintained.
...
A committee of Moslems in the capital has issued pamphlets explaining the movement, which, they assert, is in no wise directed against the constitutional government. The committee emphasizes the fraternity between the Moslems and Christians and encourages the cooperation of all for the welfare of the empire.
...
TEN ARMENIANS KILLED.
The first news from Mersina was exaggerated. Early advices stated that a massacre of Armenians was in progress at that place, which is a Mediterranean seaport of Asia Minor. The disturbance in reality occurred at Adana, which is about thirty-five miles from Mersina. Only ten Armenians were killed. Martial law has been proclaimed there and reinforcements are being dispatched from Beirut.
The report that Mahmud Mukhtar Pasha has fled to Salonika has been confirmed. It is stated that Ahmed Riza, the former president of the chamber, has taken refuge in the French Embassy, and that Hussein Jahid, editor-in-chief of the Tanin, has fled abroad.
...
The number of casualties during the disturbances of the last few days has not been definitely ascertained, but it is believed to be comparatively small. It is alleged that many officers, disguised as privates, participated. This tends to confirm the assertion that the mutiny was directed against army officers who were members of the Committee of Union and Progress.
...
YAVER PASHA REMOVED.
The new ministry has promptly removed Yaver Pasha from the command of the first army corps and given this post to Nazim Pasha. Nazim Pasha was Minister of War for a brief period prior to the formation of the Kiamil Cabinet and the malcontents among the troops have urged his reappointment to this post.

He is a popular and able officer and his removal is a serious blow to the ministry.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

JEFFERSON CITY (Mo.) April 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Drastic bills, restricting and regulating the liquor traffic, are having smoother sailing than some days ago since the house passed the resolution to submit a prohibition amendment to a vote of the people.

A measure went through the House today as a substitute to the Murray bill, imposing a fine of from $5 to $25 on persons who enter a passenger car intoxicated.

The "dry" forces are sure of the vote, feeling confident that body will vote for submission. The Democratic State Committee is in session tonight, in conference with leaders of the legislature to organize for the next campaign, and to discuss the question of submitting the prohibition amendment.

The Senate, having a Democratic majority, is counted on to surely carry the submission, as it was the solid Democratic vote that carried it in the house. Just after St. Louis overwhelmingly elected the Republican municipal slate.

WHEAT KING AND BOSTON CRITIC HE SCORED.

James A. Patten

LAWSON AND WHEAT.

although related, scene was enacted. Flour had risen, the bakers were trying to find out where their profits were coming from unless the price of bread could be raised.

The speculative day on the board opened without indications of the sensation to come. May and July quickly rose to a new high price, the former $1.25 1-4, and the latter to $1.18 7-8. July's price was the highest since 1871, but neither mark created unusual comment.

Either one or the other of the options has been doing the same thing since the first of the month. There has not been a trading day since then, and one or the other has not created a new top price.

Patten bought and sold as usual, buying July and selling May. He is said to have disposed of 1,000,000 bushels of his May holdings today, and to be practically out of that option. His energies are now centered largely in July.

"I have some May still," he said, "but I am chiefly interested in July now. I am not paying much attention to the deferred futures. They are new crop months."

It was fifteen or twenty minutes before closing time when the selling for today's wheat was over. The market was in a deluge and the bears, stirred by a 5-cent decline in Winnipeg, based it on a reselling by exporters, attacked the market with great spirit. July tumbled half a cent at a time, to $1.14, an extreme loss of 4 3-8 cents; May, in larger jumps, dropped to $1.25 and September, an undisturbed new crop month, which attained $1.08 7-8, declined $1.04 3-4.

Here the Patten purchases made their influence felt, and the close of the session found July at $1.15 5-8 and $1.15 1-2, May at $1.25 1-4 and $1.25 1-2, and September at $1.08 7-8.

In contrast to these prices those of a year ago are of interest. During April a year ago, wheat sold at an average of 96 cents, and July around 55 cents.

The first sale of wheat for delivery in May of this year was made here June 23, at 84 cents. Whether of public record, but he was among the earlier purchasers. Since then the price has risen nearly 30 cents a bushel.

With the May deal proper, to all intents a thing of the past, a battle royal will be waged in July. Mr. Patten, at the head of an influential following, insists that July will be an old crop month. That is, four must be made from the harvest of last year, instead of the new wheat usually raised in the winter wheat belt in time for delivery on July contracts.

Mr. Patten said today that even if some of the wheat was harvested early in July, it would never reach Chicago, but would be matched up by bushels in excess of the amount in sight at this time in 1908. But principally they insist the new crop will be on the sale in Chicago is abundant.

In discussing his operations today, Mr. Patten referred frankly to himself as a speculator as well as a grain merchant, and incidentally admitted that he is long of cotton.

"I'm a grain merchant," he said, "but I'm a speculator also. I like to speculate. It's a great game. It looks like this to me: Cotton at the present price is just about as cheap as wheat, and it has caused general alarm and surprise in the ranks of the carriers. The attack is contained in a pamphlet which is called 'Legislative Bulletin, No. 10,' and which starts with the query, 'Is not legislation necessary?' The pamphlet is being sent broadcast by John M. Glenn, secretary of the association.

The surprise is due to the fact that during the closing days of the administration of F. W. Upham as president of the association a resolution was passed calling a halt upon hostile railroad legislation, and telling the shippers that it was time the railroads were given a rest from agitation and an opportunity to recover.

The basis of the denunciation of the railroads is to be found in two addresses recently delivered by B. L. Winchell, president of the Rock Island, and by Daniel Willard, second vice-president of the Burlington. These prominent railroad men, in substance, insult the intelligence of the American people when they assert that a few laws enacted by the people brought on hard times and a general depression.

The keynote of the document is sounded in the following: 'The rings which have controlled the Rock Island and waterway have added enough bogus bonds and stocks to the capitalization of their various companies to pay the cost of a ship canal that would carry the largest ocean steamships and battleships from the Gulf to the Great Lakes. This water is as much a public debt as the $20,000,000 of bonds which the State of Illinois has authorized for its waterways, because the shippers and the public will ever be taxed to pay the interest and dividends.'

While playing with comrades in the immediate neighborhood, the child was induced to go to another street a block away. Calling his grandmother over the telephone he said: "Grand-mamma, I am going over to Belt avenue for a few minutes; I will be right back."

That happened at 6 o'clock, and after that the grandmother saw no more of him.

Early in the evening he was called to the telephone by an unknown man, who never told her his name. He said: "I was given $4 by a woman to help her place a boy on an Illinois Central train, bound for Louisville. He will be taken care of."

The man hung up the receiver without allowing Mrs. Cabanne to comment or question. From his saying he was paid to help place the boy on a train it is thought the little fellow made what resistance he could.

Shortly before midnight, Mrs. Cabanne, almost distracted, summoned the police and placed the matter in their hands.

The police are also searching the district known as "Little Italy" to find the author of an alleged black-hand letter received by Samuel Salvatore.

The letter was written in Italian and demanded that $500 in cash be handed over by him last night on pain of a violent death. Salvatore and a number of detectives kept the appointment, but the black hand did not appear.

STATE LAW AGAINST SALOME. [ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] DES MOINES, April 15.—Iowa's anti-Salome law went into effect today. The law was signed by the Governor and provides a fine and a jail sentence for any one engaging in any "obscene, indecent, immoral or impure drama, play, exhibition, show, or entertainment." The enforcement of the law is left to the sheriff and to the police of the State.

NOTED MAN'S SON JAILED. [ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] CHICAGO, April 15.—In the County Jail awaiting trial on a charge of forging a postal money order is a son of the former Illinois State Minister to China. The government, for which the father of the prisoner practically gave up his life in 1912, will demand that the son be sentenced to a term of years in the prison at Joliet. The story is that of Jonas Houston, 32 years old, tall, gray haired, distinguished looking. His father was Jonas Houston, former New York District Attorney, friend of Lincoln, and man of affairs. He died in Shanghai a few months after his appointment by Lincoln as Minister to China. Houston was arrested three months ago and has been kept at Joliet. As his case is expected to come up soon, he was brought to Chicago and placed in the County Jail. He has not heretofore admitted his relationship to Jonas Houston.

POLICE SEEK BLACK HAND. [ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.] CHICAGO, April 15.—Another Black Hand outrage was made known by the police today. They began searching for blackmailers who last night fired two shots at Pietro Mantabano, a prosperous baker and grocer, while he was at work in his shop. Mantabano was hit in the arm.

7 WEEKS—The World-Record Play—7 WEEKS

No stock company in the world has ever before produced a new play with the total expense that has come to the Belasco Theater Company in George Broadhurst's play as they are in this great show—the play that has set the record for the longest running play in the history of the American stage.

THE DOLLAR MARK

No play that has ever been given on a Los Angeles stage has ever before been by over 10,000 people, as has "THE DOLLAR MARK." Even the success of the company in "THE GIRL OF THE GOLDEN WEST" is insignificant when compared to the tremendous triumph of "THE DOLLAR MARK." It is the big triumph of the season.

During the present—the sixth—week of this great and glorious success there have been turned away from the Belasco box office, unable to get seats, there have been no less than 10,000 people, and all day, long lines of expectant ticket-holders throng the Belasco lobby. So many people are still demanding a chance to see "THE DOLLAR MARK" that in simple justice to those thousands this big play will be continued for two weeks.</

PAYNE TARIFF BILL. PRESIDENT ON PHILIPPINES.

Special Message Sent to Congress by Mr. Taft.

Asks Protection of Revenue for Islands.

Makes Up for Free Trade Provisions.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The President sent to Congress today a special message in relation to the Philippine tariff. The message transmitted recommendations by the Secretary of War for a revision of the Philippine tariff so as to permit as much customs revenue as possible for the islands, and at the same time to protect the islands the principle of a protective tariff for its industries. The message and accompanying letters, with a copy of the proposed act, were submitted to both houses of Congress shortly after they convened.

Generally speaking, the bill submitted by the President makes a slight increase in the rates of duty now provided in the Philippine tariff by its framers say its tendency is to insure, as far as practical, the benefit of the Philippine market for American manufacturers and products. The bill makes some additions to the free list. There will be an increase in international revenue duties by which it is hoped to make up the loss which the Philippine Islands will sustain by the operations of the free trade provisions in the pending Payne tariff bill.

TEXT OF MESSAGE.

The internal revenue laws for the Philippines are enacted by the Philippine Assembly.

The President's message on being read in the Senate was referred to the Committee on Finance.

When the House met the message was immediately read, and then referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

The following is the message: "To the Senate and House of Representatives: I transmit herewith a communication from the Secretary of War, including one from the Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, in which is transmitted a proposed tariff revision law for the Philippine Islands.

"This message reviews the present Philippine tariff, simplifies it, and makes it conform as nearly as possible to the regulations of the customs laws of the United States, especially with respect to packing and packages. The present Philippine regulations have been cumbersome and difficult for American merchants and exporters to comply with. Its purpose is to meet the new conditions that will arise under the section of the pending United States tariff bill which provides, with certain limitations, for free trade between the United States and the islands. It is drawn with a view of preserving to the islands as much customs revenue as possible and to protect in a reasonable measure those industries which now exist in the islands.

"The bill now transmitted has been drawn by a board of tariff experts, of which the Insular Collector of Customs, Col. George H. Colton, was the president. The board had many open meetings in Manila and conferred fully with representatives of all business interests in the Philippine Islands. It is of great importance to the welfare of the islands that the bill should be passed at the same time with the pending Payne bill with special reference to the provisions of which it was prepared.

"I respectfully recommend that this bill be enacted at the present session of Congress as one incidental to and required by the passage of the Payne bill.

(Signed) "WILLIAM H. TAFT."

NOTES OF EXPLANATION.

Secretary of War Dickinson, in forwarding the papers to the President, says: "I have not had time to examine the bill in detail, and have not sufficient acquaintance with the subject to say whether or not it is what it should be, but Gen. Edwards, who is familiar with the matter, recommends it and I have no doubt that with your own familiarity with the subject you will be able to dispose of it.

The letter of Gen. Edwards, dated April 11, and addressed to Secretary Dickinson after describing the measure and its purposes in much the same language as the President, says: "It will be understood that the result of the free admission of American goods into the Philippine Islands must revolutionize business in the Philippines and unless the adoption of that policy is accompanied by a revision of the present Philippine tariff, it will prove disastrous to some important industries in the islands and also result in such serious loss to the customs revenue as to embarrass the Philippine government.

"It has publicity in the United States and it is believed that the pending interests have been reconciled and as far as schedules are concerned, it should meet with no opposition.

"For instance, the schedules relating to the introduction of tobacco, Sumatra, leaf and sugar, are made identical with the pending Payne bill and therefore have removed the apprehension that these goods can be imported into the Philippine Islands at a lower tariff rate and thence into the United States free as the growth and production of the Philippine Islands.

"The proposed revision has the approval of the Governor-General and government he represents in the Philippine Islands."

INCOME TAX PROPOSED.

BAILEY'S BILL.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, April 15.—In the Senate today Senator Bailey introduced an income tax amendment to the tariff bill. It provides for a straight tax of 2 per cent. on all incomes above $2000 a year. It exempts all incomes from Federal, State, county and municipal securities, salaries of all State officials and incomes of corporations below $2000. The former law on this subject provided for a tax of 2 per cent. on incomes of $4000 and upward.

Mr. Bailey did not attempt to extend the constitutional questions, and in effect challenges them. He estimates that if his amendment becomes a law it will raise about $100,000,000 annually.

SUED FOR BAD ADVICE.

HELENA (Mont.) April 15.—John Rumping today filed suit in the District Court to recover $2000 damages from O. F. Goddard, a lawyer of Helena, Mont., for alleged negligent legal advice. Goddard secured a divorce for Rumping and the latter remarried. The Supreme Court reversed the lower court in the divorce suit because of a defective complaint.

MISS MORGAN RESTAURATEUR.

Daughter of Magnate Plans to Open Eating-house for Railroad Employees.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, April 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It was learned today that Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of J. P. Morgan, has in mind the starting of a moderate-priced restaurant for the employees of the Third-avenue Railroad.

Miss Morgan is the chairwoman of a subcommittee of the New York and New Jersey section of the Woman's branch of the National Civic Federation, which recently took steps to establish a restaurant for the employees of the Third-avenue Railroad. Miss Morgan attended the opening reception on Monday of the clubrooms of the Employees' Benefit Association of the Third-avenue Railroad. It is known that she made the suggestion of the restaurant plan to a number of the members of the association and that it probably would meet with favor among them.

WOMEN CLEAN CITY BY PROXY.

DUST CAP AND BROOM REMAIN AT HOME.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, April 14.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The women of Washington cleaned the streets as they had promised, or threatened. But they cleaned them by proxy.

No troops of white angel wings rustled, nor hustled, on the broad avenues of the city. The women were dressed in their usual attire, and many of them had their dust caps and brooms in their hands, making the streets as "sweet and clean" as their own parlors.

"If you do not clean the streets we will," said the women's committee, of which Mrs. Coville is chairman, to Commissioner West.

"Don't shoot, I beg you, ladies. I am doing the best I can with my appropriation," answered the Commissioner mildly. "If my best does not please you, go ahead."

When the time came the women cleaned the streets as they had promised, or threatened. But they cleaned them by proxy.

Those with children sent them and their servants out with dustpans and brushes. Very delicately they made little dustpans and brushes, gently in small bags. Other women hired bands of pickaninies, who were not white, to do the cleaning. The children quickly saw the chance to earn money for candy.

Women like district superintendents, walked up and down giving orders and criticizing. Mrs. Coville boasted the whole job. In an automobile she whizzed here and there.

The woman's attempt to keep the streets clean will endure. Mrs. Coville will appoint a committee of five to keep watch on the street cleaning force and to inform the commissioners of breaches of regulations.

AERIAL WARFARE MORE DEADLY.

Explosives Too Dangerous to Use on Land May Be Employed Safely Against Enemy.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, April 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prof. Charles E. Munroe of George Washington University, the leading authority in the United States on the manufacture, capacity and uses of explosives, is deeply interested in the aerial warfare game, shortly to be resumed on the Fort Meyer reservation. Prof. Munroe said:

"The development of the airplane as a vessel of war opens an entirely new field for the tactical development of explosives heretofore considered altogether too powerful and too dangerous to use by far than to the enemy whom he desires to destroy.

"The most powerful explosive agent which airplane warfare will bring into use will be fulminate of mercury, 50 per cent. more powerful than pure liquid nitro glycerine, more than double the strength of pure dynamite. The airplane will also furnish a use for gun cotton more extensive than any heretofore made."

WIFE SLAYER UNDER ARREST.

Floyd Carter Caught in St. Louis, Confesses.

Says Shooting at Sacramento Was Accidental.

Making Threat When Gun Was Discharged.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ST. LOUIS, April 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Floyd D. Carter, wanted in Sacramento, Cal., for killing his wife on the night of January 23, was arrested at the Union Station here tonight by Detectives Roch and McLaughlin, and after being arrested by Night Chief of Police Gillaspay, admitted he is Carter and agreed to be taken to Sacramento without extradition.

Carter then told Gillaspay a vivid story about his shooting his wife. He said he was intoxicated at the time and did not know what he was doing; that he had been in other men's company, to which he objected, that he found her in a wine room the night before the tragedy and took her home. The next day she hugged him as she promised him never again to be jealous, and as he had one arm about her neck he drew a revolver and said he thought he would kill her if he thought she would ever be in another man's company. She promised not to do so, but the revolver was discharged four times to the best of his recollection. She indicated she did not want him to commit suicide when he placed the revolver against his temple.

He remained in the room until she died, stayed in Sacramento several days, went to San Francisco, and drifted around the country. He was wearing the same hat and clothes he wore when he killed his wife, but went under an assumed name at 1725 North Whittier street, St. Louis.

Carter was a jockey. His wife he first met at Decatur, Ill.

ESCAPE WELL PLANNED.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, April 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] On January 23, last, the dead body of Mrs. Floyd D. Carter was found in her home at No. 521 L street, Sacramento. The woman had been dead for several days. The murderer planned well to gain time to escape, as he had locked all the doors and fastened the windows.

Neighbors notified the police that Mrs. Carter had not been seen for days, and the police broke down the door. On the bed in her bedroom Mrs. Carter lay dead. She had been shot once in the breast, once in the arm and once in the chest. No one heard the shots, but the couple often quarreled, and loud words were frequently heard.

The police at once suspected the husband, as nothing had been seen of him for several days. He was a waiter and race track touts, who spent most of his time in saloons and did very little work. A marriage certificate was found in the woman's trunk, showing that her first name was Verna and that she had been married in Vancouver. Other papers showed the couple had lived in Los Angeles.

Carter was seen on the evening of the day the murder was supposed to have been committed. He was hired a hack and instructed the driver to take him down L street very slowly. It is supposed he wished to find out whether his crime had been discovered, without revealing his own presence in the neighborhood. A reward of $150 was offered for his arrest and conviction on January 21 by Gov. Gillett.

AGAIN CUTS DAVIS'S NAME.

Washington Contractor Grants Peculiar Request of Friend of Confederates President.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, April 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] L. R. Horne of Wilkes county, Mississippi, who is cutting the name of Jefferson Davis again into the granite slab in Cabin John bridge, is doing the work as a labor of love, a personal tribute to the former president of the Confederacy. Jefferson Davis and Mr. Horne were raised in the same county in Mississippi.

A few days before President Roosevelt left office he ordered Davis's name restored. Mr. Horne saw the newspaper report and at once came to Washington. On his arrival he found the contractor who had been given the job to restore the name of Jefferson Davis to the bridge. He was given a local firm. He went to the head of this firm and asked to be allowed to do the work. The contractor, with the distributing point at Albuquerque, the Texas Oil Company, owned by John W. Gates, at the opening of its enormous plant there, gave away to the United States consumers 100 gallons of oil and gasoline. The enormous plants of the rival companies are adjacent, and to the 2000 visitors at the Texas company plant a fight was made on the product of the Standard, representatives of the independent cutting the difference in the two products as a result of the Texas company having two separate pipe lines. Prospects of a cut in oil prices were hinted at, while two barrels of chewing gum were distributed.

American Consul at Appella, Syria, Says American College Was Seriously Threatened.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—A dispatch from J. E. Jackson, the American Consul at Appella, Syria, says the students of the Central Turkey College, an American institution at Taintab, recently revolted, defying the president of the college and the faculty. For a time the lives of Americans and other members of the faculty, and the safety of American property were threatened.

At the request of the Consul the government sent a force of soldiers to the scene, for the protection of Americans. The students were armed, but were overpowered by the unexpected arrival of a considerable military force.

Friend Field Goodsell, president of the college, said the students were students were Armenians.

WOMAN WHO MARRIED HER STEPSON FINDS IT SO.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, April 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Differing in age, position or financial standing—obstacles of any kind that present themselves—can be bridged by love, according to Mrs. Eleanor Beckwith, who has just announced her marriage to her stepson, Harry D. Beckwith, an architect almost a dozen years her junior.

In the flat which Mr. and Mrs. Beckwith have furnished and which they say is a better honeymoon place than distant mountains or cities, the young bridegroom, recently a graduate from college, sat today and watched his wife and former stepmother as she told of her affection for the son of her former husband.

"Now, why should any one think it extraordinary that a woman should marry the son of her dead husband when they are in love with each other and have similar dispositions?" she asked. "Love is the greatest thing in the world and the essence of all life. I was in love with my stepson and he with me—so we married."

"A perfectly natural thing to do, don't you think?" asked the young husband.

BIG VERDICT FOR MISS MATTES.

Chicago Jury Awards Her $25,000 in Breach of Promise Suit Against Latta's Agent.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, April 15.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Mary Mattes today was awarded $25,000 judgment by a jury in Judge Wells's court in her suit against Hugh Crabbe, former confidential agent for the late L. Z. Latta, for alleged breach of promise.

Many who had watched the court battle, during which the lie was passed repeatedly, and which ended in Judge Wells's verdict, predicted a big verdict for the plaintiff.

The case is said to have been influenced largely by the defendant's efforts to blacken the character of the plaintiff through testimony of his man friends.

Near the close of the hearing it took three ballots to restore order in the courtroom. Judge Wells severely rebuked the lawyers for their conduct.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

Just kidding.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Six More Carriers.

Six additional carriers will be put on mail routes today by Postmaster Filini.

Hanna Concert.

The Occidental College Glee Club is to give its annual home concert in the Hall of Letters tonight under the direction of Leroy Jenson.

German-American Republican Smoker.

The German-American Republican Club held a smoker in its room, No. 125, at the Occidental College building, last night. These informal social gatherings have become very popular with the members, and about 150 were present. The club, which was organized just prior to the last national campaign, is on a firm footing and growing steadily.

Yoga-na Entertainment.

An entertainment and dance was given by the Yoga-na Club at Odd Fellows Hall, No. 721 West Jefferson street last night. This club is the social organization of Acme Lodge, Berkeley, and University Encampment, I.O.O.F., Yank-na is the Indian name applied to this city prior to 1781. A feature of the entertainment last night was the introduction of a band of trumpeters.

Many to See Great Valley.

Secretary Wiggin is receiving many applications for reservations on the Chamber of Commerce excursion through the San Joaquin Valley, which is scheduled for next Wednesday night. The Southern Pacific will provide a fine equipment of sleeping and dining cars. Stops will be made at the principal towns along the railroad, and members of the party will deliver short addresses to the assembled crowd.

Price Is Higher.

In reporting the sale of the Wiley property on Hill street, just south of the southwest corner of Sixth street, yesterday, the unfortunate error of stating that the property was seventy-five-foot front was made. The property sold for $18,000, through Bryan & Bradford, but a modern building, naturally the price per front foot is $240, and not $180, as stated, which is more in keeping with valuations in the vicinity. The property was purchased by the Ontario Investment Company, which will hold for a while, and improve with a modern building when a suitable tenant is obtained.

BREVITIES.

Remember the slogan: "Buy and Boost Home Products." For daily reference, see page 1, part II, of The Times, containing list of wide-awake manufacturers, under the heading "Made in Southern California." You will find that many of the necessities and luxuries here—manufacturers of things to eat and drink—things for the home, the factory, the office and the farm. Buy them! Try them! There are none better. Buy and Boost, and keep your money at home where it will do you and yours the most good.

PROTECTS BERRY EATERS.

County Horticultural Commission Takes Prompt Action in Matter of Dangerous Sprays.

Prompt action was taken by the County Horticultural Commission yesterday to stop the use of poisonous sprays on strawberry plants by gardeners in the vicinity of Gardena. The attention of the commission was called to the matter in a letter by Chief of Police Dishman, to whom complaints had been made that persons had been taken seriously ill as a result of eating berries. An inspector was sent to Gardena yesterday and Commissioner Ervin Dingle will himself visit the truck gardeners there today to see that the commission's orders are obeyed.

"We advised the gardeners to use sulphur to destroy the red spiders which attacked the plants several days ago," said Commissioner Dingle. "That is the only thing that will kill those pests. If any poisonous sprays have been used it was without our knowledge and was due entirely to the ignorance of the persons who used them. Some of the gardeners may have used arsenic of lead or Paris green, and if they have we will see that it is stopped."

C. S. Marston of Marston & Martin, commission merchants, said last night that his firm had taken up the matter with Mr. Bemis of the County Horticultural Commission. "Mr. Bemis, having personally investigated the matter in the field," Mr. Marston said, "stated that few of the patches were affected and that he had advised the use of sulphur in case the sprays showed a tendency to gain ground. He stated that this method had been successfully used in other sections in Southern California in previous seasons. Mr. Bemis informed us that no ill-effects could possibly arise by reason of eating strawberries where the vines had been sulphured."

RELAXATION.

DECRIES CRITICS OF THE COURTS.

MEMBER OF BENCH SPEAKS TO BAR ASSOCIATION.

Semi-Annual Dinner of That Organization Is Attended by Considerable Number—One Orator Tells About Adam and Eve and the Devil in the Garden of Eden.

The semi-annual dinner of the Los Angeles Bar Association, given last night at Levy's, was attended by about 150 lawyers, with justices of the Supreme Court as special guests. It was perhaps one of the most pleasant dinners ever enjoyed by the Bar Association.

President Lynn Helm presided and started the post-prandial feast with pleasant remarks on the comradeship of the local bar, and presented Justice Henry A. Malvern of the Supreme Court, who acted as toastmaster.

Justice Melvin said that he well knew that toastmasters often do too much talking, and therefore he would be "a living and breathing epigram." His further remarks were of a humorous nature, full of quips which were highly appreciated by the legal minds of his hearers and he occasioned repeated shouts of laughter.

Mon. F. M. Angellotti, also of the Supreme bench, was for his subject, "Technicalities, With Reference to Their Effect in the Administration of Criminal Law in the Appellate Courts."

The speaker regretted the fact that through technicalities in the law criminals have been enabled to escape the penalties of the law and he directed to the subject of criticism of the courts. "Notwithstanding statements to the contrary by some people and the press," said Justice Angellotti, "people of this country have really little complaint against the decisions of their appellate courts."

He said that much of the criticism to be heard is based upon extreme cases, and it is therefore unfair, as applied in a general way, and in a review of the decisions of the appellate courts of California, for a given period, he declared that all the reversals were on account of errors at some point in the litigation. He took issue with the theory that the end sometimes justifies the means, and declared that only the spirit of the law should rule. He decried unfair criticism of judges of the courts, and said the fact that most of them are honest and conscientious in the performance of their duty does not lessen the effects of unfair criticism.

He said the first law of which we have any record was a prohibitive law laid down for the government of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, and that the devil was there as the first critic.

"When the last day shall come," he said, "and Gabriel shall stand up to blow his trumpet some intellectual peevish will rise up to criticize the judgment of the Almighty and object to Gabriel blowing the horn."

Kodol is Composed of the Natural Acids of the Healthy Stomach—It Makes Weak Stomachs Strong.

Kodol contains, in liquid form, all of Nature's natural ferments, and juices, such as pepsin, pancreatin, hydrochloric acid and aromatic tonics—thus enabling it at once to digest every particle of food with which it comes in contact. A tablespoonful of Kodol digests 2 1/2 pounds of food. A bottle of Kodol digests 40 pounds of food—and it makes no difference what kind of food it may be—Kodol will digest it; and where there is perfect digestion in the stomach, there is necessarily a perfect and healthy stomach. A good, healthy digestive process, can always be assured to one's stomach, by merely keeping a bottle of Kodol handy, and taking a little of it now and then. You do not have to take Kodol all the time. You only have to take it occasionally, just at the times when you need it. Our guarantee is: Get a dollar bottle of Kodol. If you are not benefited, the druggist will at once return your money. Don't hesitate; any druggist will sell you Kodol on these terms. The dollar bottle contains 2 1/2 times as much as the 50c bottle. Kodol is prepared in the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

CHASE ACROSS MOUNTAINS.

Deputy Sheriff Fellows Alleged Horse Thief With Success Far Through Rough Country.

After a chase of thirty-five miles through the mountain fastnesses from Calabasas to a point about midway between the latter place and the Deputy Sheriff's headquarters of San Fernando yesterday afternoon arrested Joseph Limbo, who is now in the County Jail, charged with stealing a horse from the San Fernando Farming and Mining Company's property at the latter place, Calabasas. Limbo was riding the stolen horse when overtaken by the Deputy Sheriff. He did not offer fight. He was taken to the County Jail at the Workman ranch, but was discharged about three months ago, and has since made his home in the mountains. When he appeared at the ranch, An hour later he disappeared. A valuable horse was stolen from the Workman ranch immediately look the trail. For seven hours he followed Limbo and came on him late in the afternoon at a point about midway between the latter place for the night. Limbo is about 25 years of age. In his flight he took the most tortuous route through the mountains in the hope of eluding officers. In the belief that he had shaken off possible pursuers he dismounted his mount in the afternoon hours.

Sealer of Weights Objects to an Advance—Operators of Ovens Arrange for a Conference to Be Held Saturday Evening—Dealer Advocates "Two for Fifteen" Price.

Whether the price of bread shall be increased or the size of the loaves reduced is a question that is agitating the bakers of Los Angeles. A meeting will be held tomorrow evening to discuss it. The continued increase in the price of flour, which yesterday took another jump of 25 cents a barrel, bringing it up to the highest mark in

That any attempt to advance the price of bread will meet with vigorous opposition is certain. S. W. Green, city sealer of weights and measures, has come forward as the champion of the consumer. He will lay the subject before the Mayor today, and next Tuesday night he will urge the City Council to pass an ordinance requiring all bread to be sold by round weight.

Spectacular bounds in the price of wheat are the admitted cause of the high price of flour, but opinions conflict on the question whether the advances are purely speculative or the result of natural conditions. The public generally attributes the high price of wheat to the manipulation of James A. Patten and his associates in the Chicago market, but bakers and millers

"The master bakers have no definite plans regarding the changes to be made," said William D. Meek of the Meek Baking Company. "They are all agreed that the margin of profit for the baker is now too small, but how it shall be increased is a matter that will be discussed at a meeting that has been called for Saturday evening. Whether any action will then be taken

"A year ago we were paying about $5.50 a barrel for flour. Today I paid $7 a barrel. We hope that the price will not go higher, but in view of the general trend it is impossible to tell just what will result. The high price of wheat and flour is not due to speculation, but is the result of natural conditions. It is a question of supply and demand.

DOESN'T FAVOR INCREASE.

"I do not favor an increase in the price of bread to the consumer," continued Mr. Meek. "If any advance is made it will be very small and the burden must fall on the retailer. The profits of the retailer now range from 30 to 50 per cent. We could not cut this profit more than 5 per cent. If the price of bread were to be increased in proportion to the advance in the price

"We do not believe that City Sealer Green's plan to require bread to be sold by weight is constitutional. Similar ordinances passed in other cities have been declared invalid. I believe it would be better to require a label on each loaf of bread giving the weight."

C. R. Bradford of the Bradford Baking Company gave it as his opinion that the price of bread should be increased. He would sell two of the present 5-cent loaves for 15 cents and the 10-cent loaf for 15. What will be done by the master bakers, however, he would not predict.

"Today's advance of 20 cents per barrel for flour," said Mr. Bradford, "makes the price of the local product $6.80, and the eastern product $7.20.

These high prices are not due to speculation entirely. They are simply following the law of supply and demand. The general trend of prices not only for flour but other commodities is upward. My belief in this is so strong that I made a contract today for flour for three months at the market price in order to protect our business. I have made a contract for eggs for a year at 27 and 28 cents, the highest price I have ever paid.

"I do not believe that an ordinance requiring the selling of bread by weight should be legal, nor do I believe it would be practicable."

"There is no need for the bakers increasing the price of bread at this time, even if the price of flour has gone up," declared S. W. Green, city dealer of weights and measures, "and I propose to fight any such action. What the bakers want to do now is simply to put bread on a uniform basis of eleven ounces to a loaf. Bakers who make eleven and twelve-ounce loaves sell thirty-two loaves to the retailer for $1. That gives the retailer 20 per cent. profit. Some make a fourteen-ounce loaf of which they sell twenty-six for $1, giving the retailer 20 per cent. profit. What they now propose to do is to make a uniform loaf of eleven ounces, and retain it at the price of flour goes down.

one barrel of flour will make over 25 loaves of bread weighing eleven ounces each," continued Mr. Green. "It costs about $2.50 to make a barrel of our into bread, and at the present price of flour, $7, the total cost would be $10.50. Sold to the consumer this would bring $16.25, giving a profit to the baker and the retailer of about $5.75. I am in favor of an ordinance restricting bread to be sold by pound weight.

SHORT STORIES OF BIG MEN

One on President Taft.

The Georgian of Augusta are chuckling over the story about Mr. Taft.

Mr. Taft, it seems, drove out one afternoon to Georgia, planter. The planter's cook, a woman, takes no interest in public affairs, and she recognizes the party guest.

What did you think of that gentleman, Mr. Taft asked, after Mr. Taft had driven to the fall, Mr. Taft replied, "I can't say much, but I think he is a very nice man."

Among His Own People.

Major Melanin of Mississippi tells a story of his own people. He says that he has seen the colored brother up North.

A Mississippi dandy went up to New York and shortly got stranded. He begged for shelter from door to door and got nowhere. He wandered back to Mississippi and his friends are doing at my front door.

Good Marriage.

On a rainy day near London the old Marchioness Evelyn Wood told her stories in illustration of what good marriage can do.

Thirty years ago, he said, I was a young man of 23,000 Zulus on 1800 white men, and myself among the latter.

The British general, who was outside shot the Zulu at 192 yards, and then a third who had picked up the Zulu abandoned the attack, and the general.

Couldn't Lose the Case.

late Thomas B. Reed used to tell this entertaining story of a case in which he was counsel.

Mr. Reed found that their client, a man, had been refused in a case, and advised that the suit be dropped.

He was somewhat perturbed, but he would have a talk with the wife. He knew next morning what he had to do.

Travelling in his word he dropped in bright morning the cheerful look of one who has won the good fight.

"I've seen those wits," he said, "and they say they must have won. I've also seen some of the judges, and I think I'll win. Now, if there's any justice in law, we can't lose."

Same Kind of Head.

Mr. Harlan of the Supreme Court was in West Virginia some years ago, when he was before him a case in which the plaintiff was a lawyer whose head was quite like the New York World.

The day was damp, and the room in which the case was being heard was not long after had begun his argument that he said: "I must pause long enough to repeat what I have just said more fully."

"I'll win," he said. "The court agrees with me. The case is over."

People's Theater next week. According to the original bookings, the pictures were to be seen at the Mason, but the manager would not have it thus.

The Bach Festival to be held in the Greek Theater, Berkeley, Thursday afternoon, April 22, is of interest in the south not only as a great musical undertaking, but because of the fact that plans have been made for a repetition of the festival in Los Angeles.

The Bach choir was organized in Berkeley a year ago with the aim in view of bringing about in the West a revival of the vocal works of Bach, such as has swept Europe, England and the East in the wake of festivals.

The object of the society, which is a permanent organization to study the vocal compositions of Bach; to give an annual festival; to prepare each year one of the great works of Bach to be sung at the festival in addition to those previously performed.

The choir is composed of 125 voices, backed by many prominent musical folk in and around San Francisco. For the past year two strenuous rehearsals have been held on the coast, and the choir will be supplemented by an orchestra of forty pieces, pipe organ, piano and a group of six prominent soloists. This will be the first time that a pipe organ will be heard in the famous Greek Theater.

PLAN HOME OF MAGIC.

American Society of Magicians Starts Fund to Build Black Art Theater.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, April 15.—The Society of American Magicians will combine their efforts tonight in a monster entertainment of magic at the Berkeley Theater, the receipts of which will be used to start a fund for the erection here of a special playhouse, uniquely devoted to the giving of demonstrations of the black art.

The associated magicians feel that there is a field in New York for a theater such as Egyptian Hall, in London, for entertainments exclusively by magicians.

According to Oscar S. Teale, president of the society, the stage and presentation of the great magic of mystery, is enjoying a revival throughout the United States, and the time is ripe for the revival of a home of magic such as the society plans.

Will You Do Us the Honor to Be Present Tomorrow Evening?

One is apt to feel sometimes that a quiet place is not a busy place; to measure effort by noise; to figure the size of the egg from the cackle of the hen.

There has been very little bluster about what we are doing in Los Angeles; yet we have given thirty-one years to one enterprise, and we hope you will come tomorrow night and see how far we have got and how well we have done.

Year after year we have brought to you, from America and from abroad, these same choicest goods which are shown in different parts of the store—but only when it is assembled now in an artistic setting do you realize the magnificence, the vastness of it all.

We shall depend entirely upon the attractiveness of various exhibits of merchandise for your approval; there will be displays of diversity, each one intensely interesting, as showing the resources of this long-established institution.

We shall be glad to have you come when the doors, open at seven o'clock, and to stay until they close at ten; there will be much to interest and instruct you during that time, and you will very likely want to have answered, many questions regarding the sources from which articles come, the history of their manufacture, the various styles in which they may be shown, and like facts concerning them. Our salespeople will be here at your service.

Of course, no goods will be sold; this is to be a display, in its broadest sense.

The store will close on Saturday at two o'clock, in order that we may uninterruptedly finish the many details of preparation incident to so large a display.

Tomorrow's papers will contain additional details.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

MRS. ROBERT MARSH of West Chester, Pa. will preside at a garden breakfast today. The guests will be entertained beneath the trees in the garden. Miss Ray Johnson, whose engagement to Henry Bolt Moore was recently announced, will be the guest of honor, and about thirty friends have been bidden. During the afternoon bridge and music will be enjoyed.

Dinner Party.

Mrs. William F. Bosnyak will of No. 125 West Eleventh street was hostess entertained with a dinner party last night at the Jovian Club.

Engagement of Interest.

At a luncheon yesterday afternoon given by Mrs. Joseph Kurts of No. 1801 Taborian street, announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Elsa Milner, daughter of Mrs. John Milner of No. 111 West Washington street, to Charles L. Michod, a young business man of Los Angeles. Guests were seated at two tables, each of which was ornamented with a silver basket filled with pale pink rose buds. Smaller baskets filled with the same recently at a dinner with which she entertained in celebration of the birthday anniversary of William Bosnyak, whose wedding to Miss Eleanor Holland will be solemnized this month. The room was festooned with lovely knots of pale pink tulle, and the table was strewn with sprays of bridal wreath, and the lights were shaded with yellow. Heart-shaped cards ornamented with Cupids, marked places for members of the bridal party, which included Miss Ray Squires, Miss Mavis Packard, Miss Bell Hart, Miss Helen Bosnyak, William F. Bosnyak, Charles Rixon, Ralph Leuborn and Victor Stamps. Saturday Miss Holland will entertain her maids of honor at the Orpheum.

At Home Today.

Mrs. C. H. Von Breton, formerly Miss Adelaide Stanton, will be at home to friends this afternoon at No. 902 Grattan street.

Married-Bride Nuptials.

Miss Florence M. Howell, sister of Mrs. D. A. Hamberger, and Dr. Herbert C. Baile were married night before last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamberger at Ocean Park. Only the immediate friends of the young people attended the ceremony. There was a profusion of flowers. A white wedding veil, pendant from a canopy beneath which the young couple stood, made the parlor a bower of beauty. The young people received many useful and beautiful gifts. After the wedding dinner was served, Dr. and Mrs. Baile left for a two weeks' honeymoon trip.

Fashionable Functions.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Huntington of 600 N. Knoll, near Pasadena, gave a smart reception and garden party yesterday afternoon. The decorations were particularly attractive, nothing but peach blossoms and wild flowers being used. Several hundred guests were bidden, and the following friends were asked to assist: Mrs. A. T. Green and Mrs. Fred Bixby, mother and sister of the hostess; Mrs. E. A. Bryant, Miss Kate Williams, Mrs. J. N. Van Nuy, Miss Anna Van Nuy, Miss Kate Van Nuy, Mrs. Jefferson Chandler, Mrs. Leo Chandler, Mrs. Allan Balch, Miss Grace Melius, Miss Katherine Melius, Mrs. W. A. Moore, Mrs. Alfred Soano, Mrs. Randolph Huntington, Mrs. Titian J. Coffey, Mrs. James Somers and Mrs. Ashley H. Robertson.

Invitations Recalled.

Mrs. Eugene Hewlett and Mrs. E. Chandler Smith have recalled the invitations issued for Sunday, on account of the death of Mrs. Smith's father, C. M. Foulke of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Ferve Also.

Mrs. Philip Ferve of No. 437 Westlake avenue, who was to have entertained with a card party the 25th inst., has recalled the invitations.

Dinner Party.

Twenty Years Ago

any man who was long on ambition and short on industry could take the half shells of three English walnuts into a few minutes into almost any smart town and impose upon the sheer credulity of the populace. In the same way was true of filled chocolates a few years ago, but the public has been educated to expect better filling—a process due to the honesty and faith of a few chocolate makers.

The highest product in filled chocolates, both in the fillers and the coating, is obtained by purchasing the Christopher brand. One trial is convincing.

WILLING WORK

The Willing Workers of the congregation gave a reception to the members and friends of the Los Angeles Orphan's Home yesterday afternoon at Brith Hall, No. 511 W. 1st St. The affair was attended by three hundred guests, and the program, under the direction of the workers, was musical.

The principal numbers of the program were played by Prof. C. Chauvenet. The first number was "Turkish Patrol," on the piano, by the workers. The second number was played by a number of selections. Mrs. C. Chauvenet, an old English ballad, followed. The workers then sang "The Willing Workers," accompanied by her little daughter, Mrs. J. Kirchhoff, on the violin. The program was concluded with two solos.

Fanny Wolf, one of the workers, gave a reading of a local dramatic school. The workers then sang "The Willing Workers," accompanied by her little daughter, Mrs. J. Kirchhoff, on the violin. The program was concluded with two solos.

WILLING WORKERS OF SINAI GIVE ENTERTAINMENT.

The Willing Workers of the Sinai congregation gave a recreation to the members and friends of that church yesterday afternoon in the Sinai B'nai B'rith Hall, No. 331 West Fifth street. The affair was attended by many guests, and the program, under the direction of Mrs. Meyer, was musical.

The principal numbers of the afternoon were played by Prof. and Mrs. De Chauvenet. The first number was "Turkish March," on the piano. In addition to the piano Prof. De Chauvenet played a number of operatic selections. Mrs. De Chauvenet sang an old English lullaby, followed by several numbers from "Cavalleria Rusticana" as an encore.

Accompanied by her little daughter, Mrs. L. Kirchoff played "The Waltz" on the violin. Miss Frieda Wolf, one of the scholars of a local dramatic school, gave a number of dramatic selections. Her recitation, "A Cherry Neighbor," created much amusement. Little Miss Meyer, a daughter of Rabbi Meyer, played a number of "Wedding March" in a solo.

Among the most enjoyable number of the afternoon was the song, "They Are Like to Mary," by Karmel, the nine-year-old daughter of the Sinai. She was escorted and accompanied by her father.

Mrs. J. B. Meyer, president.

Mrs. Ellis Cohn, financial secretary.

Mrs. I. H. Meyer, vice-president.

Mrs. A. Abrams.

Mrs. H. Brown.

Sinai Congregation Willing Workers. This organization gave a pleasing musical affair in B'nai B'rith Hall yesterday afternoon.

Short German selection, from the opera, "Madame Angot," another number, which was a hit, was given by the Willing Workers. This society was organized two years ago by the ladies of the B'nai B'rith congregation, and has become one of the most flourishing organizations among the Jewish community of Los Angeles. The membership is now more than 100.

ORPHANS NEED ROOM FOR REAL BATTING.

IF LOVERS of baseball only knew how limited is the yard at the Los Angeles Orphans' Home, and how they long for a large place, they would help the directors of that institution to raise the $75,000 necessary to build a new home at Colton, near the beach, and the boys of the home would be able to get the best of their American citizenship training in a healthy environment.

There is absolutely no place in the home where the boys can play baseball in freedom. The boys cannot do more than ten feet apart, and the little four to hit the ball with any force because it may break a window in one of the houses surrounding the home.

These boys need a larger space to grow up in and the generous people of California will surely not refuse to make it to their assistance. The Orphans' Home Association, of which Mrs. A. Bryant is chairman, has just received the receipt of $10,000 from the city of Los Angeles, which leaves the balance yet to be raised to defray the cost of building the proposed new home at Colton.

The Orphans' Home Association is a charitable project and is not a business enterprise.

Hearing on extradition of Carroll W. Gates, a wealthy cattle man and real estate owner, who is under indictment charging him with land fraud in Oklahoma, will be set next Monday afternoon before United States Commissioner Van Dyke. Gates probably will resist removal to the jurisdiction of the Oklahoma courts. He steadily maintains his absolute innocence of any attempt to defraud the government of its lands.

SANTA FE ADMITS VIOLATIONS.
The Santa Fe Railroad admitted four violations of the Federal safety appliance law in the United States District Court yesterday, and confessed judgment for $400, $100 on each count. The safety appliance act compels railroads to have patent brakes and couplers on its cars in order to better protect the trainmen.

That's fair, isn't it?

If we didn't know that we could win you and hold you we wouldn't make this offer—would we?

Beans are about 23% proteins—energy and strength-producing elements; and are therefore more powerful for body-building and repair than good bread, beef, eggs, and many other foods costing more.

Clean, perfect, government-inspected pork, is cooked by the exclusive scientific Snider process, with the finest selected beans that any man on earth could pick out.

News Happenings South of the Tehachepi.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

IMPERIAL VALLEY. BOOZE GOT HIM IN HOT WATER.

PHYSICIAN'S TROUBLES ARE DUE TO LIQUOR.

He issued Prescriptions at El Centro for Purpose of Enabling a Well Person to Obtain Intoxicant for Beverage. Last Rite Spiked Down Very Quietly.

EL CENTRO, April 15.—Dr. Byron G. Hays, formerly of Los Angeles, who came here several months ago, was convicted in City Superior Court yesterday in the charge of issuing prescriptions to persons to obtain intoxicant for beverage. Dr. Hays, when arraigned several days ago, pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial. He acted as his own attorney yesterday, and refused to take the stand on his own behalf. In a considerable amount of testimony, he introduced his own testimony, without being sworn, in his address to the jury. The jury was out but a few moments, and the verdict of guilty was returned. The case is of peculiar interest, as it is one of the first of the kind to be tried in Imperial Valley.

BUILDING BULL RING.
Great preparations are being made at Mexicali, just across the international line in Mexico, for the "Cinco de Mayo" celebration of the victory of Gen. Hidalgo. This has always been the leading of that town, but this year special effort is to be given by the introduction of an old-time bullfight. Work is in progress on the construction of a great bull ring, or "Plaza de Toros," in which the combats between matadores and bulls are to be witnessed. A gallery has been erected, with a seating capacity for about 500 people, and the event is being widely advertised.

LINK IS COMPLETED.
Without ceremony or even general knowledge of the public the last rails were spiked down connecting the two ends of the Inter-California Railroad Sunday afternoon. This now completes the line direct from Imperial Valley to Yuma by way of Mexican territory. The road extends from Calexico, which is the terminus of the Imperial Valley branch of the Southern Pacific, through Mexicali and down through the immense holdings of the California-Mexican Land and Cattle Company in Mexico until it swings around to the northeast and again enters the United States at Hanksville, on the California side of the Colorado River, almost opposite Yuma. Eventually the overland trains of the Southern Pacific will be sent from El Centro through the Imperial Valley over the new line, but this cannot be done until the new rails are placed.

QUICK AUTO TRIP.
A recent trip has been made from El Centro through the mountains and desert and across Imperial Valley to the Coast. Mr. Kew of San Diego and his two sons, accompanied by E. W. Burger, made the trip last Saturday, the running time from San Diego to here being three hours. They reported the road very rough in some places, but not so bad as to damage the machines, which was a four-cylinder "Dodge." They declare that a new grade, avoiding the sand wash of Devil's Canyon, and a change of route to the mesa to Coyote Well would reduce the running time to about six hours, and as the new route and camps are accessible along the way, they believe the opening of such a road would result in much travel between the valley and San Diego.

COUNTY SEAT'S NEW DAILY.
The Daily Free Lance has made its appearance here. It is an afternoon sheet, and is managed by A. D. Medley. Imperial Valley settlers are taking the greatest interest in the coming of the paper. Raymond H. Satterwhite, special agent for the United States Office, and Mr. Medley are attempting to straighten out the tangled claims arising over the conflicting land claims. He will be in the valley for several weeks, and is asking that the claimants file their papers with him in order to facilitate the necessary investigations. About forty interviews have been had.

COTTON PROSPECT GOOD.
Large quantities of cottonseed are being taken out from El Centro by the Imperial Valley settlers for planting this month. It is believed that the new year this district enters upon the planting of cotton on a commercial scale will even exceed the expectations of those who have been mainly instrumental in getting the movement started here, and that the acreage will reach 500 acres. The American Nile cotton company is proceeding with the arrangement of a new class of cotton gin and compress.

SEWER CONSTRUCTION.
Frick & Ware, Los Angeles contractors, this week began the construction of a sewer line for the El Centro. They will bring here steam shovels in order to hasten the work of completion before the hottest summer weather arrives.

BALBOA.
BALBOA, April 15.—The work of de-planting Balboa Island has begun in earnest. Several teams are now busily engaged in grading and leveling the island. Within a few days the dredging will be ready to begin cutting out a channel and filling in the old lagoon.

OCEANSIDE.

IN A HURRY. WEARY WAITING NOT FOR THEM.

LOS ANGELES COUPLE FLEE TO SANTA ANA TO WED.

Seventeen-Year-Old Boy and Girl Married by Justice of Peace in Grains Green of Southern California—Bess Take Up Abode in Strange Hive.

SANTA ANA, April 15.—Weary of waiting for the delays of the law in Los Angeles, which were entirely too many to suit their ardent affection, George Ogden, both of Los Angeles, and both but 17 years old, secured a marriage certificate here today, and were married by a justice of the peace. In Judge Rives's court in Los Angeles yesterday, Mrs. George Bursell asked that she be appointed guardian of Miss Ogden, who wished to marry Herrick, a barber. The request was granted, but there was a hitch of some kind in the proceedings, for no license was issued at the office of the Los Angeles County Clerk.

In his statement to the local County Clerk today, Herrick stated that he and his sweetheart were both from Orange County.

RIVER GIVES LAND.
A. H. Lyon and W. D. Halladay, two Santa Ana men, are much interested in a case that was submitted yesterday to the judge of the Territorial Circuit Court at Yuma, Ariz. Lyon and Halladay bought 122 acres on the Colorado River a year ago, and they believe additions to their purchase give them 400 or 450 acres more. When the land was surveyed in 1874 the river cut off twenty-eight acres from a 160-acre piece. Since then the Colorado River has been moving away from the land, and it is now a mile and a half west, each year adding a strip of 200 feet or more. The law has it that when a river washes away a part of a man's land he is loser, and when it adds he is the gainer. Lyon and Halladay think they are gainers about $25,000. Attorney H. J. Poyry of Santa Ana, who represented them in the trial at Yuma, returned here today.

BEES AT HOME.
S. Q. Conkle had a surprise yesterday. He was returning from his apiary in the foothills. In his wagon was an empty bee stand. He stopped for an hour in Santa Ana on business, hitching his team to a rack on Broadway at the edge of the business section of the city. When he returned to his home he found that a swarm of bees had taken possession of the empty stand. Conkle drove on home with his new friends, and has them in his backyard getting started on the season's business.

COMMITTED TO PATTON.
Mrs. Anna Wilkens of Orange was today committed to the insane asylum at Patton. She has strange religious hallucinations, and is a danger to herself and others.

PLANTING ALMOST DONE.
Eucalyptus Company at Work on Last Batch of Trees for Escondido. To Build Rectory.

ESCONDIDO, April 15.—The Pratt Eucalyptus Company of Los Angeles commenced work yesterday on the planting of eighty acres to eucalyptus trees on the Casco tract, a mile west of this place. This will complete the company's planting of 1500 acres of the present season in the Escondido Valley.

A strong effort will be made during the pastorate of Rev. C. S. Packenham to build the rectory of the Episcopal Church, which has been planned for the lot adjoining the church. The Escondido baseball club has been organized, with Sam Wisdom as manager, George Thompson, captain, and C. R. Hinman, secretary and treasurer. Grounds are being graded near the W. H. Ralston residence, south of Grand avenue.

JOY RIDER JOLTED. LAW CATCHES RICH SPEEDER.

SON OF MILLIONAIRE FINED IN SANTA BARBARA.

Defendant is One of a Number of Wealthy Young Men Who Have Announced Themselves at Expense of Ordinances of Channel City—Police Take Him at Last.

SANTA BARBARA, April 15.—Ashby H. Keeney, whose father is a Brooklyn millionaire living in the exclusive Montecito colony, and who has been warned repeatedly by the local police against fast riding, was fined $50 this afternoon for running his auto at tremendous speed on Chapala street. Keeney is one of a number of wealthy young men who have amused themselves at the expense of the city ordinances, and against whom the police have started a vigorous crusade. His name was on a long list of chronic speedsters, but until today he managed to keep out of the clutches of the police.

Nat. F. Moore, son of James Hobart Moore, one of the principal owners of the Rock Island Railroad, was racing with Keeney when the latter was caught. Moore has been arrested on the same offense on other occasions, but he secured another warrant against him, and he probably will be arraigned tomorrow.

Both young men own high-powered machines, and both have given local policemen the "ha-ha" until the blue-coats declared war.

BIG REALTY DEAL MADE.
Gentleman Block in Riverside Sells for Handsome Price—Sisters Secure Divorce Decree.

RIVERSIDE, April 15.—The Castleman block at the corner of Eighth and Main streets was sold yesterday by F. T. Pember to the First National Bank, which occupies the larger part of the lower floor. The property occupies one of the four most central corners in the city, and has a frontage of 66 feet on Main street and 102 feet on Eighth street. It is improved with a substantially built two-story brick structure, with walls heavy enough to carry a third story, which the new owners contemplate adding in the future. It is situated in a prime location in the neighborhood of $100,000.

WEDDED AT HOME.
The marriage of Miss Ethel Kelsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Kelsey, to Mitchell D. Haskell took place last evening at the new home of the bride and groom at No. 321 East Eighth street. Rev. G. M. Anderson, pastor of the First Christian Church, and a cousin of the groom, was the officiating clergyman. The home was converted into a fragrant rose bower. The bride, who was unattended, wore a gown of white silk trimmed with Irish lace, and carried bride roses.

Virtue Eleanor Henry was granted a final decree of divorce by Judge Denmore today. Francis Henry, who at the same time her sister, Alice Emma Henry, was given a final decree of divorce from Franklin Henry, the husband's brother. Both divorces were granted on the ground of desertion.

MISSIONARY UNION MEETS.
Members Elect Officers and Report on Year's Work at Convention in San Diego.

SAN DIEGO, April 15.—Interesting addresses by well-known educators and speakers, reports of committee members of work done during the past year, and musical programmes marked the opening of the Congregational Women's Home Missionary Union at the First Congregational Church yesterday. Today the nineteenth annual session of the southern branch of the Women's Board of Missions convened jointly with the sister organization.

BARGAIN BALKED.
COURT UPSETS COMPROMISE.

VENTURA JUDGE RULES REGARD-ING MILLIONAIRE'S ESTATE.

Agreement Relative to the Property Left by Millionaire Schiappapetra Is Set Aside, But the Decision Does Not Pass on the Validity of the Will Itself.

VENTURA, April 15.—Superior Judge Clark has declined to remake the will of the late Leopoldo Schiappapetra, the millionaire bank king of Ventura county. That, in effect, is the meaning of two decisions handed down in the Superior Court this afternoon. The court does not pass upon the actual validity of the will itself. That is a matter to be determined in proceedings hereafter. The decision upsets the compromise made with the Santa Barbara claimants to the Schiappapetra millions, and puts the whole matter back where it was when the will was filed, so far as they are concerned.

The Santa Barbara claimants are Mrs. Domingo Badilla Schiappapetra and her five children, the alleged widow and children of an elder brother of the late Leopoldo Schiappapetra. With this showing, proceedings having been begun to contest the will, the executors agreed upon a compromise whereunder the widow and five children were to be paid the sum of $150,000, (that is, $25,000 for Mrs. Schiappapetra and each of her five children. Testimony to this effect was heard in the Superior Court in February. The matter has since been held under advisement. The decision today declines to recognize the validity of the compromise.

A second decision by the court declines to recognize the validity of a second compromise, proposed by George C. Power, guardian of the Rosa children, legatees under the will to the extent of $150,000. This second compromise was negotiated while the first was pending. Under its terms, the guardian had excluded Mrs. Dominga Badilla Schiappapetra and agreed to pay $25,000 to each of her five children.

The contest of the will of Schiappapetra begun by Arturo Noveras, a nephew of the testator, from Italy, on March 19, is still pending.

TO EQUALIZE VALUE.
A meeting of the local Chamber of Commerce last night was attended by the members of the State Board of Equalization, Alex Brown of Stockton, J. Harry Scott of San Francisco, and H. E. Collins of Redding, with Secretary T. M. Hernandez of San Bernardino. Mr. Brown addressed the chamber at length, asking its cooperation in securing a fair basis of property values in the county, in order to bring about a just assessment. The board has selected more than 200 pieces of realty in the county, good and less good, and will have these appraised. Mr. Brown wanted the Chamber of Commerce to name a committee of gentlemen to act as appraisers for the benefit of the State equalizers. A committee was accordingly appointed, consisting of Messrs. John Lagamarino, William Maguire and John Repp. These gentlemen have expressed their willingness to serve, and will choose two additional appraisers, one from Oxnard and one from Santa Barbara.

The Chamber of Commerce will give a Ventura county banquet on May 12, at which a number of State and Southern Pacific officials will be present.
